Receipt of the amendment filed 08/26/98 is acknowledged.

The following is new ground of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 112

76-84 are

Claim ~~76~~ is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as based on a disclosure which is not enabling. The substantial cut lines and thought-cut lines disclosed in the specification page 1, lines 21-26 and page 4, lines 3-5 are critical or essential to the practice of the invention, but not included in the claim(s) is not enabled by the disclosure. See In re Mayhew, 527 F.2d 1229, 188 USPQ 356 (CCPA 1976). In claim 76 there is only recited one type of cut namely the substantial cut lines. In the claim line 9, it is states that after said forming step (i.e. forming the separation lines such as substantial cut lines ) the single-sheet construction printable sheet is passed through a printer or copier and thereby printing indicia on the sheet portions. Applicant's attention is drawn to the fact that the sheet is provided two types of cuts substantial cut lines and a through cut lines and that these cut lines provides the card stock sheet with sufficient integrity to reliably pass through the printer without breaking apart. See Specification page 4 , lines 3-4. Since these two cut lines provides integrity of the sheet to pass through the printer the substantial cut lines and through cut lines have to be included in the claim.
